

Aimless

Dayshell

Aimless to say, conscience decay,
You are the veins, and I am the brains.
So won't you get up, to fire, no ice.
So won't you get up to fire, no ice.

If she would only have, or could find us a place to live.
With all this motivation, the lack of concentration,
I want you, no need you, please.

You are the veins, and I am the brains.
So won't you get up, to fire, no ice.
So won't you get up to fire, no ice.

If she would only have, or could find us a place to live.
With all this motivation, the lack of concentration,
I want you, no need you, please.

Don't keep me waiting, I said don't keep me waiting.

If she would only have, or could find us a place to live.
With all this motivation, the lack of concentration,
I want you, no need you, please.
