

I Don't Belong

DC Talk

And so we broke
And so you decided
It was you, it's always you
Even though we were friends
I felt uninvited
The fraternity of fools

And I'm drowning slowly (going down)
And I'm fading like ink that's a hundred years old

I don't belong, say I'm wrong
Told you that you should have known me better
I don't belong, this is my song, this is my song

You made me a prince
You made me a pauper
Then you turned and closed the gate
Even though I messed up
There wasn't an offer, love
No mercy, no grace

And I see right through you (see right through you)
You wanna be just like me don't you

(Stupid things I've said and done)
Oh don't you walk away
(Battles that I've lost and won)
Shame, shame, shame on me
(What I used to think was wrong)
I'm for the underdog, I like the one that don't belong
