

My Will

DC Talk

I'm setting the stage for the things I love
And I'm now the man I once couldn't be
Nothing on earth could now ever move me
I now have the will and the strength a man needs

It's my will, and I'm not moving
Cause if it's Your will, then nothing can shake me
It's my will, to bow and praise You
I now have the will to praise my God

Complexity haunts me for I am two men
Entrenched in a battle that I'll never win
My discipline fails me, my knowledge it fools me
But You are my shelter, all the strength that I need

I'm learning to give up the rights to myself
The bits and the pieces I've gathered as well
They're nothing compared to the joy that You bring me
The peace that You show me is the strength that I need

We've got to be children of peace
Don't you know we've got to be children of peace

It's Your will, It's Your will, not mine
It's Your will, It's Your will
