A Little Bit of Soap

Please listen to this simple De La style I'm gonna sing It's strongly directed to all the misery you're bringing Now I'm not all about dissing someone else personnel But there's no quota on your odor That's right, you smell Now you might feel a little embarassed, don't take it too hard And don't make it worse by covering it up with some Right Guard Before you even put on your silk shirt and fat gold rope Please take your big ass to the bathroom And please use (A little bit of soap....)
