

Circulate

De/Vision

You, you say a word to me
You like what makes me see
I want to give myself to you
I must find a way
A way to make you stay
I need you here today
Cause I really want to love you now
Please don't let me pray

Though you let me down again and again
I can feel your cold heart's flame
I lost my self in you
In you

I say hello to you
Your blossom makes me blue
Yes, I really want to hurt you now
Say you want me to

Someone is trying to tear us apart
Trust can be broken by one word
Spoken words are hard to hide
Spoken words are hard to hide

But when we trust in each others heart
It's a lack of confidence
A lack of confidence

Circulate, circulate, circulate
I circulate in your arms

Circulate
