

Don't Sound The Alarm

De/Vision

There are secrets we hide
We lock away, we keep inside
There are secrets that
We can never let show
There are things that we say,
Things that we do, and we don't know why
There are some things that
We just have to let go

Don't sound the alarm
Don't give us away
Between you and I
Is where it should stay

I won't confide
I won't give in, I won't defy
I won't break down and
I will not expose
No, I won't betray, I've got to stay true
If I want to survive
I, under pressure
Will not be disclosed

Don't sound the alarm
Don't give us away
Between you and I
Is where it should stay

There are secrets we hide
We lock away, we keep inside
There are secrets that
We can never let show
There are things that we say,
Things that we do, and we don't know why
There are some things that
We just have to let go
