There's a feeling within Getting under my skin Breakdown My plane just hit the ground Got control over me Got a rise out of me Downfall Full tilt against the wall Of all the things I would ever do I only regret the fact That I ever put my trust in you I can't go on denying A part of me is dying Whenever I'm in you Is it me? Is it you? I can't go on pretending This is how we're ending I stopped dreaming of you And the things we would do Like a thorn in the side A distortion of life No way, can't take another day Every storm you create Every feeling I fake Wake up, my truth became a slut How hard you try, no matter what you do In the end, my dear Your love won't never be enough for two I can't go on denying A part of me is dying Whenever I'm in you Is it me? Is it you? I can't go on pretending This is how we're ending I stopped dreaming of you And the things we would do I can't go on denying... I can't go on pretending This is how we're ending I stopped dreaming of you And the things we would do This is how we're ending I'm not dreaming of you This is how we're ending I'm not dreaming of you I'm not dreaming of you
