

Perfect Mind

De/Vision

Now that the lights are out
I am in bed and cannot sleep
I think about the time we live in
The feeling is so deep in me
It burns in my mind
It burns in my mind

And when I see what is going on there
I hide myself
I cannot understand
This hate in dreamland

Their faces look the same
And we are all to blame
But we're too stupid to understand it
What a shame

And when I see what is going on there
I hide myself
I cannot understand
This hate in dreamland
