We Might Be One For A Day

I may well be satisfied Stay a while Sweet little child Taste some of the poisoned fume Leave this world Enrich this room

We might be one for a day Angels take Our souls away Reaching heights, we won't get caught Gods lend wings To tainted hearts

Feel the pain deep inside From your head to your feet From the left to the right But noone loves

When we earn all lover's pay Father, hide My love away Searching for an alibi Listen to Your spirit's eye

Feel the pain deep inside From your head to your feet From the left to the right But no one loves and no one knows De/Vision
