

Born In A Storm

Deacon Blue

That hurricane day
Will soon pass away
And someone will sweep
All the jetsam back into the bay

And you'll come
Like you always did
And knock on my door
Like the big bad wind

Born in a storm
Is that the only excuse you can give
Born in a storm
Is that all you're going to live
