Deacon Blue

This town takes a lot of beating babe
It mostly comes from you
It takes a lot to crush it too
But you would try that too
This town takes a lot to make it cry
When you've seen the devil passing
It isn't only that you prophecy
But you make it happen

If it's important I'd like to know
Why not sing it out loud in your own
Ch-Ch-Church

I've heard that you loved him Bo
And that she loves you too
Whats wrong with flesh and blood
That makes your work seem so good
How come we're all here again
Railed and railed upon
Talking all this hullabaloo
Just cause you don't like something

When and if you've got something to say
Well sing it out loud in your own
Ch-Ch-Church

Whats all this talking about anyway...
