

Just Like Boys

Deacon Blue

You bet you need protection
From the big love heartbeat
But this boys intentions
Don't count for nothing so sweet

Man he call it drama
And woman call it dream
Man he call it joy
its a woman's scream
Man he point the finger
And the family feel the nail
Man he call it home
its a womans jail

When you hear the big love heartbeat
Remember its an empty noise
We're just sucking you down sweet
Like you're only sugar toys
Aint that just like boys

Bobby wants to say
What Sally don't enjoy
Tommy wants to play
Like Angela's a toy
Georgie wants to kiss
Though he knows that Sharon's coy
And Ronnie wants to scam about Things he can destroy
