

Promise You Rain

Deacon Blue

Please remember
Please remember you'll know why
This is nowhere
This is nowhere then you die

We'll maybe not like it
We'll maybe not like it
When we die
We'll maybe not like it
We'll maybe not like it
When we die

So I could promise you rain
But it would only
Bring you down again

Here's to you girl
To you and me into the
Bright blue yonder
We had it coming
A little bit of what you like
Will only haunt you

Your eyes will open
Your eyes will open to the light
You'll maybe not like it
If what you like's what made you blind

So I could promise you rain
But it would only
Bring you down again

There's an old man
Used to pass this way so much
He seems to know it
It seems a shame that we've lost touch
It wouldn't scare me
It wouldn't scare me if he spoke
It wouldn't scare me
It wouldn't scare me if he spoke

So I could promise you rain
But it would only
Bring you down again
So I could promise you rain
But it would only
Bring you down again
But it would only
Bring you down again
But it would only
Bring you down again
