

Detention Home

Dead Boys

alone in my room now, i sit and i try to think of a reason why i don't wanna die
i killed a nun just for fun for 6 weeks they had me on the run now on my walls i'm writin little poems life ain't so easy in the detention home. writin letters in crayon to all my old friends at school i wish they'd come see me but it's against the rules
now on my walls i'm writin little poems
life ain't so easy in the detention home. i gotta escape now i've had all i can take i'm hopin for weapons inside my birthday cake
now on my walls i'm writin little poems
life ain't so easy in the detention home.
