

My Tomorrow

Dead by April

I've been thinking about
Taking the easy way out
Used, beaten, disposed, it's tempting
I've been told it's too selfish
Gotta fight to the finish
Thank you but it's not helping

Feel uncared for, dead and empty
Getting tired of feeling so lonely

But I am going to change my tomorrow
I'll be on top of the world by tomorrow
Got the strength, I can do it
Not just saying, I'll prove it
I'll prove it
I'll prove it

Watching my rear-view mirror
And what it is reflecting
It's an image that's broken
It is time for a change now
So ... ?
How damn hard can it be?

Feel uncared for, dead and empty
Getting tired of feeling so lonely

But I am going to change my tomorrow
I'll be on top of the world by tomorrow
Got the strength, I can do it
Not just saying, I'll prove it
I'll prove it
I'll prove it

I'm flying away now
I'm touching the sky now, yeah
On top of the world now
And I'm never going back
I change for the better
Seeing brighter colors now
On top of the world now
And I'm never going back

Feel uncared for, dead and empty
Getting tired of feeling so lonely

But I am going to change my tomorrow
I'll be on top of the world by tomorrow
Got the strength, I can do it
Not just saying, I'll prove it
I'll prove it
I'll prove it
