

Her Heart In Your Hands

Dead Infection

Be a hero of the story. There's a girl you're madly in love with feeling that is better than paradise. Nothing else matter; You spend with her all days long. The air of night clubs enhances your relationship.... but little does she 'bout you, and she doesn't know the pleasure is. You're all alone in her digs. You're going to show her your manliness. She doesn't resist. But then she gets a sudden pain instead of a summit heat. She can feel fire in her chest. She is already unconscious when your razor blade moves from her heart to womb. You take her sexual organs out. You look at your work. You try to pull bowels out, unsuccessfully however. They're too heavy and slimy so they get back to their place. You penetrate her insides, tearing her heart out of the chest, part of her life you've tried to love. ... and then you waked up bathed in sweat. It's all right now. It was just a stupid dream. Love goes on.
