

Cage

Dead Letter Circus

Do you feel warm within your cage
Friend you are bigger than this
I know you see between these lines
Want for the world in your hands
You are smarter than these chains
And have you figured out yet
It always figures out best, life goes by

I feel something's not right
We're living in circles
With no break in sight yet
Why can I not live this life the way I feel I choose, know that is right
I wanna push this wall till it breaks

It comes and it goes, it comes and it goes and it's never the same
One day at a time and I can't explain why
I keep holding on when I know this is all a game
I choose to play but why?

There's no turning back
This prison is perfect and moving too fast

Tell me why should I exist in life this way
I wanna choose, know this is right
I wanna push this wall till it breaks

It comes and it goes, it comes and it goes and it's never the same
One day at a time and I can't explain why
I keep holding on when I know this is all a game
I choose to play but why?

Do you feel warm within your cage
And have you figured out yet, life goes by

Is that you standing head down in the line
Is that you with your hands held in the sign
The real you in this moment now
Hoping to identify and to re-define

And now you, claim you broke free to decide
Lonely you, built the walls to your design
Is that you wishing, you could have learned how to just simplify and not analyse

Do you feel warm within your cage
Or does it burn almost everyday
There is still time left
So make your decision
