

I'm a Star

Dead or Alive

Everybody's saying, Girlfriend, just who do you think you are?,
With your young good looking chauffuer, and your patent leather car,
Well I may come from the gutter,
But I'm aiming for the stars,
And just like Johnny Rotten, I drive 'em crazy at the bar,...

Maybe I should bribe a DJ, maybe I could get played that way, Maybe I should get a gun, you'd have a serial killer at number one,.

*I'm a star (Now that I'm a star),
Now is my time to rise and shine,
I'm a star (Now the crowd is mine)
Finish your song because the crowd is mine.

Well, the In-crowd say in night clubs, I have done some carrying on, I'm sorry to offend you, but that's how I research my songs,
And if my reputation suffers, well I do it for my art,
And somewhere inside my microphone, I've got

A diamond studded heart,

Maybe I should bribe a DJ, maybe I could
get played that way, Cry for public sympathy, well you can keep that stuff, 'cos it isn't me.

I'm a star (Now that I'm a star),
Now is my time to rise and shine,
I'm a star (Now the crowd is mine),
Finish your song because the crowd is mine.
I'm a star (I will rise and shine),
Now is my time, to rise and shine,
I'm a star (Now the crowd is mine).

Because the crowd is mine, because the crowd is mine,
Because the crowd is mine, because the
crowd is mine,
Finish your song because the crowd is mine,
because the crowd is mine,
The crowd is mine.

Maybe I should bribe a DJ, maybe I could
get played that way,
Maybe I should get a gun, you'll have a serial killer at number one,.

*Repeat

Just 'cos I've not got everything, doesn't mean

I don't want more,
You've got 'TAKE THAT! and GEORGE MICHAEL, they're such crashing bores!,

From Liverpool to Paris, and from Birmingham to Rome, Anywhere there's a spotlight baby!, It's my birthright and my home,.

You want looks?, I got 'em, Meisels' already shot 'em Jewels?, Don't need 'em, There's hungry people feed them,
You want names?, I'll name them, scandalise and frame them,
Cos I am a STAR!.
