

Son of a Gun

Dead or Alive

Son of a gun

There's a boy in the world
Who doesn't follow the crowd
Doesn't do what he's told to
That's why he's allowed to Stay job as a diver
A job as a diver

If you are lucky
You might be the one
Get to ride with the outlaw
You think that are done by respectable people
Respectable people

But heaven knows
He isn't what he should be
They're just
I just think he could be

A son of a gun
Ever try to save a bullet in your ear before
A son of a gun
He's got something that you've
Never ever ever tried before
Son of a gun
While at once he will take
And he'll take what is best
Life's far too short
To leave time for the rest
That's the law of the jungle
The law of the jungle

Heaven knows
He isn't what he should be
They're just
I just think he could be
