Everyone Burns In This Hell

Dead Silence Hides My Cries

Waken up! Hear the screams! It's your soul Slowly burns in hell Faith is crushed Blood is flushed And your god is brutality Everyone Burns In This Hell! Pray!

Everyone Burns In This Hell!

You blame god For your sins We've become The shame on this earth Dark fills hearts Hate fills minds This is all vile reality

Peel your soul From the sins and hate Cry out words Which will save your fate

Your god is taking your life Your heart obscured by lies Your mind was swept by dust And now you're hating your past
