

It Remains In You

Dead Silence Hides My Cries

Emptiness
Starts to fill
Your memories
And you don't Remember of Past miseries
You think it's over
Your fears is gone
You think it's over
But you are wrong
Do you believe that you cleaned up all you mind forever.
No!
Always be some things you can't forget.
Never never.
You can erase
The past from your Black memory
But you can't
Erase your sins
So easily
You think it's over
Your fears is gone
You think it's over
But you are wrong
Do you believe that you cleaned up all you mind
forever.
No!
Always be some things you can't forget.
Never never.
Throw
Your thoughts
Away
You must Know
You can't Hide from
Your past
It lives in
It lives in
In you
