

Let Me in

Please clean my dismay
Take me away
Straight to heaven
To your site
I just went astray
Show me the way
Light the beacon
We'll unite

I want to be there
That place's free from lies
There are no words like care
And no one ever cries

Why did you leave me here?
I am now all alone
If I don't have you near
My heart will turn to stone

My pain is so severe
Can't wait to have you near
I'll join you in heaven
Sorrow will be outdone

Dead Silence Hides My Cries
