Up and out I never regretted a thing Take a glance from the inside It isn't what you think This is it This is everything I have So between you and me Give up all fucking hope I've got the answer, so save your fucking explanation This is the last time I'll suffer through your exploitation Harvest truth and save it for your revelation I've lost all trust and I've finally had the realization All my heroes have failed me And all your heroes will fail you Give up hope I don't care and I'm through hearing you justify You've given up and I know you've fucking died inside We've burned it all and everything it signifies I've reached my breaking point and I finally realize All my heroes have failed me And all your heroes will fail you Give up hope I'm sick of trying and I'll never put my trust in you No more heroes no promise of something new It's over now There's no more damage you can do You're dead to me, because me and you are finally through All my heroes have failed me and I have given up hope This is the last time I ever place my trust in someone else And I have given up all fucking hope
