Blue

This guy comes up to me I said "who are you?" He said "I think you know, I'm blue"

You used to heigh 200 pounds Now yer skin and bones Boo Hoooo!

People flood the streets With their heads on fire Has that ever happened to you? Blue?

That's the sound of the ocean Crashing down on you Blue Running through the veins of Memory's remains She's cursing you

People flood the streets with Their heads on fire Has this ever happened to you, blue? People runnin' scared as their eyes turn black Has this ever happened to you, blue?
