

And Ashes Will Fall

Deadstar Assembly

Pushing everything away
Existence hollow and vague
I'm nothing that I used to be
As you witness this unraveling
If I could only let you in
If I could only let you in to

Follow me
Follow me down
Comfort in fading away
Follow me
Follow me down
I'm broken apart in the end
Starring appalled there's no resolve
Behind a wall
And ashes to ashes we fall
We fall
We fall

These fingers in my eyes are so appropriate
Every corner in which I hide
The suffering I find
All the things I've loved I hurt
So spineless writhing in the dirt
Now there's nothing left of me
Now there's nothing left of me to save

Follow me
Follow me down
Comfort in fading away
Follow me
Follow me down
I'm broken apart in the end
Starring appalled there's no resolve
Behind a wall
And ashes to ashes we fall
And ashes to ashes we fall
Down

You're a blessing and a curse
Now you're bringing out the worst in me
Now you're bringing out the worst in me
Now you're bringing out the worst things

Follow me
Follow me down
Comfort in fading away
Follow me
Follow me down
I'm broken apart in the end
Behind a wall

Follow me
Follow me down

Comfort in fading away
Follow me
Follow me down
I'm broken apart in the end
Behind a wall
