

Hey Baby, This Is Our Song!

Deaf Havana

There's a blinding light, that's taken in my eyes
It's an obvious belief that you've taken me
By surprise, and I'll never forget this
And I know this song that I've wrote for you is a little desperate
And I'm happy to embarrass myself for you I guess but....

You stole my heart, and it's pretty much for keeps
Unless I'm dying by the road side and I need some beats

I wanna live like this
Live like this forever
With you, cos there's no one
Cos there's nobody better

And I know how it feels, what's it's like to be missed
And if I'm honest
It was never at the top of my list, and I'll never regret this
And I know this song that I've wrote for you is a little desperate
But I'm happy to embarrass myself for you I guess but...

You stole my heart, and it's pretty much for keeps
Unless I'm dying by the road side and I need some beats

I wanna live like this
Live like this forever
With you, cos there's no one
Cos there's nobody better

Is this scaring you yet?

I wanna live like this
Live like this forever
With you, cos there's no one
Cos there's nobody better
