

Oh Howard, You Crack Me Up

Deaf Havana

This back seat is making me sick
we're not done
oh yes we're far from done.
Just tell me that you love me,
and everything will be fine
hold me close until the impact has passed.
and I said it right
I said it loud
I said it right this time

I never quite understood my angel's guidance.
It tends to bend and break into different shapes.
I never quite understood my lover's lusting.
It tends to bend and break into different faces.
Into different faces!

It took all this time just to arrive
I won't be leaving just yet
(I won't be leaving just yet)
I never focused my attention on anyone else but you.
and I said it right
I said it loud
I said it right this time

I never quite understood my angel's guidance.
It tends to bend and break into different shapes.
I never quite understood my lover's lusting.
It tends to bend and break into different faces.

When tired friends,
become tired trends,
and out goes the romance,
and so does your welcome
