

I Don't Wanna Wait

Dean Geyer

I could stay here in the darkness to dream all alone
But the daylight follows
wherever you go
I could fade out and back down like I always do
I can't take the chance of losing you, no
Now I couldn't lose you

I don't wanna wait for something I want
A minute too late, the moment is gone
I don't wanna be stuck in my head
With nothing to show
I don't wanna wait for something I need
And maybe I don't know what I'm doin'
But it's the sweetest confusion

It could be I'm crazy, got lost in your eyes yeah it could be I'm headed for a painful surprise
And the clock ticks on, the days are gone
You're out on your own

It's why I can't keep letting you go, no
Baby all I know

And time keeps wasting away
Silently fading

I don't wanna wait for something I want
(Where you are the daylight follows)
I don't wanna wait for something I need
(I don't wanna dream alone)
I don't wanna wait for something I need
And maybe I don't know what I'm doin'
It's the sweetest confusion, oh
It's the sweetest confusion
