

Terrible, Tangled Web

Dean Martin

You've got a way of makin' me blue and I've got a way of hurtin' you too.
Oh what terrible tangled web we're we don't we.

You've got a gentleman on your side and I've got a friend I'm tryin' to hide.
And oh what terrible tangled web we're we don't we.

We both got our way of goin' our way
knowin' the cost gets greater each day.
And I know you know we know we both deceive don't we.

We've got our way of livin' in lie
and live's got a way of makin' us cryin'.
Oh what terrible tangled web we're we don't we.

Why'd we we have to settle for it
how can we take too much more it figures we both got the nerve to leave don't we.

We've got our way of livin' in lie
and live's got a way of makin' us cryin'.
Oh what terrible tangled web we're we don't we.
Oh what terrible tangled web we're we don't we.
