

Katie

Deana Carter

All this time
And all is fine
Oh call me paranoid,
But I think something's going on.

I know you'd say
It looks ok
Yeah, but I've got my suspicions
But I don't want to be like this.

'Cause I'm a reasonable guy
But I can't shake this
And I don't know why.

Experience brings
A kind of sense for these things
So call me paranoid
But I think something's going on

'Cause it seems alright
Oh but it's too damn quiet
And I tell you I don't like it.
Oh God, I wish it isn't so.

'Cause I'm a reasonable guy,
But I can't shake this
And I don't know why.

Katie, will you say to me?
Will you just laugh and tell me that I've got it wrong?
Katie, will you say to me?
Will you just tell me please what the fuck is going on?

Oh, for goodness sake
Now you know I'd hate to come over obsessive,
'Cause I'm really, really, really,
I'm not like that at all

Did I say too much?
Yeah well not as such
Oh look, but there I go again.
No this really is not how I am.

It's just there's something in my mind
That says where were you last night?

Katie, will you say to me?
Will you just laugh and tell me that I've got it wrong?
Katie, will you say to me?
Will you just tell me please what the fuck is going on?
