

She's Good For You

Deana Carter

She parks her car on Woodland Street
She's got a job at the Meat-N-Three
She's kind of pretty in a peculiar kind of way
And I try hard to like her, yeah, I try hard to like her

'Cause she's good for you
She's so good for you
You say she's good for you
That makes her bad
That makes her very bad for me

I saw her at the grocery store
Her stuff was obviously yours
It may sound silly but it made me want to cry
And I tried hard to hide it, I tried hard hard to hide it

'Cause she's good for you
She's so good for you
You say she's good for you
That makes her bad
That makes her very bad for me

It's torture
The thought of you touching her
Remembering the way we were
And I try hard to like her, I try hard to like her

'Cause she's good for you
She's so good for you
Well even if that's true
That makes her bad
That makes her very bad for me

She's bad for me
She's bad for me
