

All Of Me For All Of You

Deas Vail

I'm only a seed in your hand
I'll never be big enough
But the smallest of parts in your plan
Is bigger than anything I know
So I give you all I am
And you poured out your heart over me and you'd do it again
And again

So I sigh with my burden
And you play me songs of nurture
And you say I'm the lucky one
And I don't see everything I'm should
So I give you all I am
And I won't be afraid of mistakes that I've made
Cause I know you understand

And every time I come around to this place
I can see my self thinking of jumping the spaces
Between loving hearts but I never make it
So I fall to the bottom and reach up my hands
To the lord of forgiveness of this mortal man
I'm the king of confessions
But I promise that's not in my plan
Not in my plan

Oh but I'm trying to go on
In breaking through walls that don't belong, yeah

Show me love
Love cause he shows me love
Oh my GOD
Giving back to you my GOD

Putting this back on the shelf
And turning away for good this time
