

River of Rapture

Death Angel

You build up your walls and burn a bridge with every fight Cast crippling stones that do offend with all of your might

And you're so convinced Ignorant defense

Miles away the troops do roar closer to their goal
Cast away alone you plot Temperamental soul

River of rapture
Cleanse me whole
Nullify this plague
River of rapture
Mend these bones
So broken, so displaced

You hiss out the blame for your tough and common life Yet you made this choice again to sit, not stand up and fight

Twisted point of view Solely felt by you

Miles away the troops do storm
closer to their goal
cast away, alone you rot Bitter angry soul

Rise up bleeding knock me down
I'll get back up again Always pushing forward
And I'll fight until the end

I will hear your voice no more
And you won't have a choice no more Yet I will choose to bend no more and you can't condescend no more
