

Desperation Train

Death By Stereo

Will the sun come in?
Will it shine on my face?
Will it burn so bright
And take away all this pain?
Will you lead the way
Take me to the revolt?
Help me find the things
Things I can't seem to hold.

Where's the silver lining
On my cloud?
What the fuck is this shit
That keeps coming around?
I cannot give respect
Nor can I comprehend
When all of this pain
And hurt never ends.

Where's my guiding light?
I escape through my pen.
I still follow these tracks
They just never end.
I've just got to get out
But I'm too scared to jump.
Take one leap of faith
Or this fight never ends.
This fight never ends.
This fight never ends.
This fight never ends.

Can I derail desperation train? (Desperation train)
Can I derail desperation? (Desperation)
Can I derail desperation train? (Desperation train)
Can I derail desperation? (Desperation)
Can I derail desperation train? (Desperation train)
Can I derail desperation? (Desperation)
Can you take me away from this place?
Give me a weapon to fight this pain.
Can I derail desperation train?
Can I derail desperation?

I will take the sun
Hold it in my hands.
If we both believe
Then the pain just can't win.
So don't let go.
Come on hold me tight.
We'll face our sorrow
Face it with a fight!

I will derail desperation train (desperation train)
I will derail desperation (desperation)
I will derail desperation train (desperation train)
I will derail!
