In Human Form

People of the earth beware, It is here in human form An atrocity laced with greed. Filled with evil intentions. Ready to attack

Look to the air for stories to choose, Who will be your next victim Profiting on visions of others, Dark emotions run through its veins Its motives are false its mind is insane A distant planet with no signs of life To become a home for this alien breed. Scientists of the world unite, Your services are more than needed This creature in human form is out of control

Looks can be deceiving, see beyond the shell Flesh and eyes mean nothing. The truth, time it will tell Before you think you fool the world. What comes around goes around. Shown for what you are, a waste of life