Yaji Ash-Shuthath!

When there were none in the nothingness Beyond Tharh al Dubb al Akbar came Sothoth Creator and destoyer of the gates The glowing sphere who lies beyond

The transcendent lord of thousand colours Whose gates shall set the horrors free

The All In One Who Is One In All Who descended before man's creation Monoliths we carve for Thy glory Underneath the Watcher's eyes

Yog-Sothoth, may your names be known! Mighty Beyond One, may your names be known!

Yaji Ash-Shuthath!

God of portals, create a way
Open wide the head of the dragon
Unnameable hungers are awakened
The ancient conquerors are coming

Yog-Sothoth!

You know all things that are, that were, and that shall be Beyond One!

Your body is the shifting universe of everlasting chaos
