

Sleep In The Rain

DEATHGAZE

I wish to runaway
The things I've done to you
I've been so faraway
Leaving me alone and fear

CALLING YOU

I'm calling you
I'm Filled with tears
And sleeping in the rain
Lost my hope
Still calling you
From where you were
Just leave me your mind
And leave your heart

Out of my mind
I'm broken, fallen apart

I wish I could die right now
Why my pulse still beats like hell?
Cry until there's no tears left
Can't understand

CALLING YOU

I'm calling you
I'm Filled with tears
And sleeping in the rain
Lost my hope
Still calling you
From where you were
Just leave me your mind
I forgive you

I'm following your heart
And walking in the rain
Until the end of the whole world

Why are you gone?
Left me behind
Why are you gone?
Left me alone

Why are you gone?
Why are you gone?

I wish to runaway
The things I've done to you
I've been so faraway
Leaving me alone and fear

CALLING YOU

I'm calling you

I'm Filled with tears
And sleeping in the rain
Lost my hope
Still calling you
From where you were
Just leave me your mind
I forgive you

I'm following your heart
And walking in the rain

Still looking for new light
I wanna see you again

I'm following your heart
And walking in the rain

Until the end of the whole world
