

The End

DEATHGAZE

I just believe in last breath of fate
Could you cry for me ?
Feel like a spare prick at a wedding
You're killing me

You just spoil loving words
You just spoil loving me
You just spoil loving words
You just spoil perfect world

Feel the agony, crawling on your knees
Feel the heartbeat and the bloodshed
'Til there's nothing left to bleed
Enjoy it before it ends

I pray for you
Reach out for you
I sing for you
I sing for you
All hope is not lost

I ask you real hope

Feel the agony, crawling on your knees
Feel the heartbeat and the bloodshed
Feel the agony, crawling on your knees
Feel the heartbeat and the bloodshed

Can't withstand the line of tears slowly slipping down one's cheeks
Keep a tearful eye on the end of the world
