

Naturally

Debbie Gibson

Sorry if I didn't do this, didn't do that
It's just that I don't know you anymore
What turns you on,
What has been turning you off
'cause I hear you talking behind closed doors
What do they say all these friends of yours
And why are they no longer friends of mine
Do they remember

When we didn't have to touch
It's just that it meant so much
And all hesitation was gone
We didn't analyze
We didn't have to do anything
It just came naturally

Wasn't it you who used to read my mind
I'd pick up the phone and you were there
Now it's as if you are a step behind

It was an effortless affair
Under the moon I made promises
That I really thought I'd keep back then
Do you remember

I don't want to let go
I'd be letting down you and me and everyone
That hung their hopes upon
Our love and our trust
Where has all the goodness gone?
Do you remember

We didn't have to touch
It's just that it meant so much
And all hesitation was gone
No we didn't analyze
We didn't have to realize anything
It just came naturally
