

One Day You Will

Deborah Cox

You don't miss me now
You don't miss me now

One day you will
Be walking down the street
And you'll see someone and she will look a lot like me
And you'll think about someone you left behind
And it will make you cry

One day you will
Be starting out your day
And you'll look inside your coffee cup and see my face
And you'll realize the sad mistake you made
And it will be too late

One day you'll wonder why you ever said goodbye
And you will wish you were still right here by my side
But I won't be around
You don't miss me now
You don't miss me now
One day you will

Never find a love like what we had
Never find some like me again
Through the tears one day you'll see
That the one you need is me
You'll want me back again

One day you will
Be driving in your car
And you're gonna hear a song that's gonna break your heart
And you'll wish you'd said those words you didn't say
And it will be too late

One day you'll wonder why you ever said goodbye
And you will wish you were still right here right by my side
But baby I won't be around
You don't miss me now
You don't miss me now

One day you will
Be walking down the street
And you'll see someone and she will look a lot like me
And you'll think about someone you left behind
And it will make you cry
You don't miss me now
You don't miss me now
You don't miss me now
You don't miss me now
One day you will
One day you will
