

You Know Where My Heart Is

Deborah Cox

La, la, la, la.

Wastin' time arguing. Like it's become my occupation.
Only paid for compensation.
Ya jugglin so many things. It's like you preempt a conversation, like you already know.

Baby you're the only one I see. Regardless what the circumstance might be.
Even when it's rough sometimes. Sometimes..
And even though it ain't always pretty, you know you can always lean on me.
Forever by your side...I'm by your side.

You know where my heart is, baby.
I need to breathe again.
And when we're apart, it's so hard boy.
My heart needs to beat again.

As time passes seasons change.
Even through this crazy weather, my love for you remains.
Like flowers we need sun and rain to grow.
And when you're caught out in the rain, hope ya know ya not alone.

You know where my heart is, baby.
I need to breathe again.
And when we're apart, it's so hard boy.
My heart needs to beat again.

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh.
Oh, oh, oh, oh.
You should know, you should know.

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh.
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
You already know.

Get, get down.
ooooo you'll never.
Never know, say you'll never know

Cause you'll never, never, never, never, never, never know, oohh yeah
just how much you mean to me.

Cause you know where my heart is, baby a (baby)
I need to breathe again. (I need to, I need to, I need to..)
And when we're apart, it's so hard boy.
My heart needs to beat again.

Yeah, yeah, yeah.
And we're hurting ourselves. Yeah we're hurting ourselves, when we play with each other's minds, babe, when we play with each others mi nds, yeah.
And we're hurting ourselves. Yeah we're hurting ourselves, when we play with each other's minds, babe, when we play with each others mi nds, yeah.

Woooo-ooo Baby.

You should know.....
