

Everything's Gonna Be Alright

Galbraith, Declan

I can see you cry
I'm saying goodbye
You have to find another way
I can't let you stay

I've seen many girls
All over the world
You never really stood a chance
Someone came and had the last dance
It's so hard to find another way again and again
Well I tell you
Everything's is going to be alright
Wait and see let it be
Everything's is going to be alright
You'll be fine give it time
One more time yes alright

I told you before
And I'll tell you once more
You'll have to wait another day
Can't let you stay
It's hard to confess
And it's hard to shame
At times I knew I would break your heart
You said we'd never part
It's so hard to find another way again and again

Well I tell you yea
Everything's gonna be alright
Wait and see let it be
Everything's is going to be alright
You'll be fine give it time
One more time yeah

Everything's gonna be alright
Wait and see let it be yeah
Everything's is going to be alright
You'll be fine give it time give it time
Everything's is going to be alright
Wait and see let it be yeah
Everything's is going to be alright
You'll be fine you'll be fine
Give it time give it time yeah
It's alright
