

Thought Beyond Infinity

Decrepit Birth

The void of unexistence, Seeps the lies of humanity
The holy ground, our earth of the physical
As the cross erodes through the vortex of the nothing
I walk amongst the flesh - unknown
I reflect the aura - of the future, through my being.
As the cycle will be stopped and a mirror of humanity will be viewed

Epoch of spiritual consciousness
The circle consumes as life spiritual begins the quest for oneness
Without the sign of god

Destination, all knowledge - our uncreation
To respawn the birth of the next
I am the chosen - Incantate power of my will

Break the cycle of the earth condemned - begin I evolve

The soul of man, and the light of his son is I

(recreated/re-envisioned)

Recreated through the astral order
Of the universal comprehension

As we unite without the boundaries of the cross
And we are surrounded by the parallel cycles of life infinity

I AM YOUR KINGDOM OF GOD...
