What good is sitting alone in your room? Come hear the music play. Life is a cabaret, old chump, Come to the cabaret.

Put down the knitting,
The book and the broom.
It's time for a holiday.
Life is cabaret, old chump,
Come to the cabaret.

Come taste the wine, Come hear the band. Come blow your horn, Start celebrating; Right this way, Your table's waiting

No use permitting
Some prophet of doom
To wipe every smile away.
Come hear the music play.
Life is a cabaret, old chump,
Come to the cabaret!

I used to have a girlfriend Known as Elsie With whom I shared Four sordid rooms in Chelsea

She wasn't what you'd call A blushing flower As a matter of fact She rented by the hour.

The day she died the neighbors Came to snicker: "well, that's what comes From to much pills and liquor."

But when I saw her laid out like a queen He was the happiest corpse. I'd ever seen.

I think of Elsie to this very day.

I'd remember how'd she turn to me and say:
"What good is sitting alone in your room?

Come hear the music play.

Life is a cabaret, old chump,

Come to the cabaret."

And as for me, I made up my mind back in Chelsea, When I go, I'm going like Elsie.

Start by admitting From cradle to tomb

Isn't that long a stay.
Life is a cabaret, old chum,
Only a cabaret, old chum,
And I love a cabaret!
