You

Deep Blue Something

Well hey you, Mr Torn Jeans Do you think you're mean Well, you cut just as easily As the faggot in the pink

Are you ready tonight
For the bloody sight
Be a good boy, stand up and fight
You're gonna die
You're gonna die

Well hey you, Mrs Big Hair No one really cares And all the boys stop and stare It isn't fair

Well, you really look right
But we know you're not tight
Because you slept with my roommate last night
You're gonna die
You're gonna die

Remember, I'm in you, I'm in you Remember, I'm in you Remember, I'm in you, I'm in you I'm in you

Well hey you, Mr Policeman Trying to hold my hand Yeah, we like what you're saying But please get off the band

And please don't cry
'Cause you know you can't fly
But all you do is sit and get high
You're gonna die (5x)
I'm in you, I'm in you (4x)
