

Ordinary Girl

Deep Insight

Calling to you calling to you my ordinary girl

calling out again
tired of waiting
this distance is our combination
all alone again
tired of sailing to the open I'm going under now
you try to deny it
phasing out the pain

I would never take you back again
I'm calling to you
I'm calling to you my ordinary girl
I would never take you back again
I'm calling to you

we call each other when we don't want to talk I kiss your cheek through the telephone lines
all alone again
slipping down, down
see the fire in my eyes
you try to deny it
phasing out the pain

I would never take you back again
I'm calling to you
I'm calling to you my ordinary girl
I would never take you back again
I'm calling to you
I'm calling to you my ordinary girl

Oh, if we separate all our power
we will lose control over and over
Oh, if we separate all our power
we will lose control over and over

I would never take you back again
I'm calling to you
I'm calling to you my ordinary girl
I would never take you back again
I'm calling to you
I'm calling to you my ordinary girl
So long and it's over
I'm calling to you
phasing out the pain
