

Uncommon Man

Deep Purple

Our days fall together in time
You said you can't have it all
Beast and the broom, I have that kind of feeling
It's got to be twenty foot tall

But the man
Is still alive
Oh, oh, oh
It's good to be king

Standing together again
Everyone is starting to sway
I wanna hit all the clubs to the sky
Oh, it's a fabulous day

If I'm back
It's walk and talk
Oh, oh, oh
It's good to be king
It's good to be king

By the way,
The carriage is waiting
To take yo away

If you let all the fear right in
We'd never betray you
Believe what you see
It's late as enticing, drift away

It's good to be king
It's good to be king
It's good to be king
Yea, it's good to be king
