

Spend The Night

Deer Tick

Spend the night in my arms!
I'll hold you tight, I'll keep you warm.
And you'll go far away with me--girl, you'll see.
Girl, you know you stole my heart.
I wanna give you all my love.
You've heard it all before--oh, but not from me.
So spend the night. Oh, spend the night.
Everything's gonna be alright girl, spend the night.

Spend the days holdin' hands,
'cause you're my woman, and I'm your man.
And we lookin' good together honey, doin' the best we can.
And everything will be alright, till the end of our lives.
'Cause in a heartbeat I would say to you, "I do."
So spend the night. Oh, spend the night.
Everything's gonna be alright girl, spend the night.

Oh, spend the night in my arms.
I'll hold you tight, I'll keep you warm.
And you'll go far away with me, young girl, you'll see.
And you know you stole my heart.
I wanna give you all my love.
You've heard it all before--oh, but not from me.
So spend the night, everything's alright girl,
spend the night!
