

Thyme

Deer Tick

Take your time
But if you waste it
Take mine too
I don't mind
As long as you and me are in tune
You're mine
My brain's a hazy place these days

Take your clothes off
Climb up into my bed
I'll take your money
I'll steal your oxygen
Can you see?
All of my boundless treachery

I felled a zero, at least it must have been
You're just a hero, I need a heroine
Unchained black melodies gaining strain

I don't mind the circle
It don't mean to boast
But you're divine
You got me feelin' comatose
My friend, I fear we're drawing near the end
I watched the shadows
Dance across the walls
I followed blindly
Chasing down the halls
I see
Monsters in my peripheries

Take your time
But if you waste it
Take mine too
I don't mind
As long as you and me are in tune
You're mine
My brain's a hazy place these days
