

Come Undone

Def Leppard

Come on in, welcome, enter
We got you front row center for the freakshow parade
Everybody wants to be you
But I know you see right through this sad masquerade
You wrap your arms around me like a wire
You reach into my soul
Pull out the fire
When I come undone I know you're the only one
Who can touch me when I call out your name
When I come undone I know you're the only one
Who can put me back together again
You got what it takes to make me
So won't you come and shake me out of this haze
All tomorrow's dreams you're selling

God knows but He's not telling
He's had better days
I wake to hear a voice above me calling
You drag me to my knees
But I'm still falling
When I come undone I know you're the only one
Who can touch me when I call out your name
When I come undone I know you're the only one
Who can put me back together again
Can't close my eyes
Can't hide the fear
I feel the earth beneath my feet disappear
I'm out of words
I'm out of time
Give me your hand
Reach out for mine

Solo (akordy sloky)

You wrap your arms around me like a wire
You reach into my soul
Pull out the fire
When I come undone I know you're the only one
Who can touch me when I call out your name
When I come undone I know you're the only one
Who can put me back together again
Who can put me back together again
